

I am genuinely appalled that Sinclair Broadcasting has decided to use the public airwaves to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. And I understand that Sinclair are actually forcing their stations to air this documentary. The FCC must use its regulatory authority to stop this. If it does not do that then it must force Sinclair to air Fahrenheit 911 or its equivalent as well. Otherwise, Sinclair should be stripped of all its licenses.